

Training Events

The Equipping Pastors Leadership Training Events highlighted in this registration brochure are funded by a matching grant from the Board of Pensions and support from the eight western presbyteries. This year the events are created around four missional themes: Missional Leadership, Missional Preaching, Missional Stewardship, and Missional Engagement. Each of these areas will be interpreted broadly to consider the full scope of what it means to be missional in an inward-focused world. These events are open to all pastors on a first come, first serve, basis.

This series is designed to help you understand and execute a ‘missional community ‘ in a number of ways: We hope to:

- Give you a better understanding of what it means to be missional.
- Explore what it means to be missional in your context.
- Help you proclaim God’s good news through the Bible in such a way that you invite people to join us along the Way of Christ rather than just urging people to join “Club Church”.
- Open your preaching up to the Spirit’s transformation of your church.
- Help your church become more missional in its orientation
- Offer preaching feedback designed to improve your preaching
- Provide time and space for your renewal in worship, personal contemplation and Christian fellowship
- And help you preach in a way that is attractive to the un-churched and churched alike without compromising the gospel
