

The Rhythm of Discipleship begins with Worship and moves to ministry and then from ministry to worship.

A Disciple follows and loves Jesus, worships God and participates in the mission of God.

Christians respond to God both in communal worship and service and in personal acts of worship and discipleship. The life of a Christian flows from worship of the church, where the identity as a believer is confirmed and where one is commissioned to a life of discipleship and of personal response to God. The believer's life of response and discipleship flows into the church's life of worship and service. (Book of Order W-5.1000)

The Word of God proclaimed and received in worship calls each believer to faithful discipleship in the world. From such service the disciple turns to give thanks, confess, to intercede, and to hear Christ's call anew. The rhythm of the life of the believer moves from worship to ministry, from ministry to worship. (Book of Order W-5.1003)
