Freedom Rising adopted a Mission Statement and Core Values in 2016 to ensure that any initiative developed through Freedom Rising is consistent with the spirit and mandates of the Overture adopted by the 222 General Assembly of the PCUSA on Addressing the Worsening Plight of African American Males. Click here to read our Mission Statement and Core Values. Click here for the full text of the Overture.

We are prayerfully seeking partners to implement this vision within our region. To ensure that any ministry/program supported by a grant through Freedom Rising is consistent with our mission and values, please answer the following questions about your ministry or program. Please keep your replies for each question limited to ONE PARAGRAPH each.

How does your ministry/program serve African American males in Allegheny County, specifically recognizing and honoring the rich diversity among African American males ages 6-19? *
