Narrative Questions

What is your congregation’s or organization’s Mission Statement? At Baldwin United Presbyterian Church (BUPC), “We Live to Praise, Honor, and Glorify God” is the mission statement of our core identity and our primary purpose. Like the four pillars that stand at the entry of our Sanctuary, these four ideas stand as reminders of who we are and who we will be. God is the center and focus of all we are. “Growing Disciples, Changing Lives. . . Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow” is the vision statement of what we believe God is calling us to be and do in the future. It honors our founders, who aspired to be a church for those who were not here yet. It also challenges us to be bold stewards of the future by growing in our own discipleship even as we invite others to grow with us. When we seek to make a difference in the lives of others, we change ourselves as people of God.

BUPC aspires to grow larger, attract younger members and families, get members more involved in church activities and continue to give back to our community. We aim to continue to lead by example by doing our best each day. We strive to provide inspiring church services and worship music that provide a feeling of fulfillment.

Brief describe your congregation and it's vision for ministry.

Baldwin United Presbyterian Church welcomes all who are looking for a church home. BUPC is a small, aging congregation called to reach out to our aging members, provide Christian education, bible study to adults and youth, and create an environment to attract new members of all ages. We encourage the youth to participate in church activities. The neighborhood community is welcoming to a diverse population of multiple ethnic backgrounds. BUPC engages in its own mission activities, but also serves with multiple mission-oriented partnerships within the local community, helping facilitate greater outreach with groups such as South Hills Interfaith Movement which provides a food pantry twice a month to our low income community; Grow Living Stones whom provides a free monthly dinner to those who come; and Alcoholics Anonymous which holds weekly meetings to those seeking help with addiction. BUPC is a loving and accepting church proclaiming God's word.

The new pastor will be a teaching elder, counselor, nurturer, decision-maker, motivator, and emphasize our ongoing commitment to honor and glorify God and implement the Word. With an aging congregation, BUPC needs a pastor to guide us through the next phase of recruiting new members while ministering to the older members. The pastor will provide enlightening and encouraging sermons. The pastoral care involves ministering to persons, in both congregation and community, who are distressed, disadvantaged, and providing links to essential social services as needed. In support of BUPC's community outreach role, the pastor must be willing and able to communicate with the diverse communities of faith. Also, as part of the church's ministries, the pastor shall attend and interact with the congregation's social activities.

For what specific tasks, assignments, and programs areas will this person have responsibility? (Please see Appendix B for sample lists)

The responsibilities of the new pastor will be to preach to inspire and guide the congregation towards spiritual growth. We seek a pastor who will provide pastoral care and participate in various church events. The pastor will moderate all Session meetings and work with ruling elders to shape the church's vision and mission and help manage the church's finances, building and programs. Coordinate with the Music Director worship service hymns. Lead bible study classes. Officiate at weddings, funerals and baptism. Assist in facilitating the church bulletin, announcements, newsletter, website and annual report. Promote fellowship and outreach ministries.
