

FULL-TIME POSITION AVAILABLE
DIRECTOR OF CHILDREN'S AND FAMILY MINISTRIES

Elfinwild Presbyterian Church, Glenshaw, PA, is seeking to hire a Christ-centered individual who is responding to God's call to serve as its full time Director of Children's and Family Ministries.

The Director of Children's and Family Ministries, working closely with both ministry teams, will oversee the planning and administration of all Christian Education classes and activities for children from birth to Grade 5. Additionally, the director will oversee the Family Ministry Program and be a support person for any adult education needs on Sunday mornings.

The position requires the desire and commitment to grow in a personal relationship with Jesus Christ through daily scripture reading and prayer and an unwavering acceptance of the authority of God's Word. The God-given ability to teach and disciple children and their families in their walk with Jesus is essential. Desired qualities include: adaptable and approachable, resourceful and relational, and generous and gentle.

Interested applicants should have a BA degree or equivalent work experience in Christian Education or Youth Ministries. Please send or email a cover letter, resume, statement of faith, a copy of clearances as required by PA law, and any other pertinent materials to:
