

Nursery Coordinator

Eastminster Presbyterian Church
250 N. Highland Ave
Pittsburgh, PA 15206
412 361-7788

Eastminster Presbyterian Church is an intentionally Christ-centered and cross cultural family whose church building is located in the thriving center of East Liberty. We are currently searching for an individual to plan and coordinate our nursery care and volunteers. We have a dedicated space and supplies for just this purpose. The primary time this person would serve in this capacity is Sunday mornings during our worship service-other times as needed and available. This position entails direct care of children and requires approximately 6-7 hours per week. Pay is extremely competitive and the workplace is supportive.

Qualifications

A degree or commensurate experience in early childhood education is preferred; strong interpersonal skills; personal transportation a plus; able to effectively communicate with children and families; current child abuse clearances; friendly personality; able to work as part of a team.
