Church Leadership Connection

The Call System for the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

We unite as the Oakmont Presbyterian Church and affirm that God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit calls us to a dynamic ministry that speaks God's Word and embodies the divine compassion. We realize that the chief purpose of individuals and of churches is to glorify God. Therefore, in a time when people are over-committed by family, work, and community responsibilities, we commit ourselves to regular worship of God that reconnects us with God and fills us with joy and the zeal of faith. We commit ourselves to develop and sustain a vibrant educational ministry through which we may all grow in our spiritual lives.

We acknowledge that people in our community still suffer, and that God reaches out that they might know abundant life. As God's people have been responsive to the needs of others, we commit ourselves to opening our hearts. We will identify and address the needs of those around us.

As God's agents of reconciliation, we commit ourselves to being the bridge between God and those around us who are not a part of God's family. We will develop the skills and events that will make us God's effective messengers.

What is the congregation's or organization's vision for ministry:

- Teaching God's word and nurturing our members on their individual journeys of faith – by providing programs for member education, fellowship, support, and opportunities for community service Reaching out to the greater community – by publicizing our programs and events and encouraging all to attend; and by monitoring the needs of the community. We have an opportunity to expand the people we reach by being more widely known either through positive social media exposure, advertising or other means to have OPC a place where people want to worship. Ministering to the needs of our community – by welcoming all who enter, making our facilities available to outside groups for meetings and events, and considering all requests for financial or volunteer assistance. Endeavoring to make worship meaningful, relevant, and inspiring – by cohesive planning by pastors, musical leaders, the worship arts committee, and other worship participants, so that members and visitors feel welcome, want to attend regularly, and always leave feeling glad they came. We are committed to engaging members of all ages – by providing fellowship and educational programs that are appropriate and relevant, regardless of age, gender, or where members may be on their journey of faith.

How do you feel called to reach out to address the emerging needs of your community or constituency:

God is missional and calls us to reach out in mission. As we serve, we are called to nurture spiritual growth within ourselves and to engage those in our community by inviting them to participate in our many forms of ministry and service which are part of the life of our congregation. To expand on existing programs and develop new programs to meet the needs of our congregation.

Many of our members are involved by:

How will this position help you to reach your vision and mission goals:

Church Leadership Connection

The Call System for the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

The person called to this position will need to be an enthusiastic leader and one who is able to inspire through thoughtful relevant sermons and strong communication skills. We need strategic and visionary leadership to support and enhance the direction God calls us as we evolve to a new beginning. The person called should have a strong faith statement and bring a calming spirit and voice to help guide the congregation in this transition. In collaboration with our church leadership, staff and members, the interim pastor will bring a strong faith commitment, energy, and enthusiasm to the specific tasks of increased local and distant mission opportunities and educational and fellowship choices. A strong leadership background will allow us to identify areas to maintain current programs within our church and for the greater community and discern with the congregation where we are called to go next. Our most recent CAT scan revealed a high level of energy and satisfaction within the church family. A delicate balance of understanding, communication and thoughtful persuasion will be key to our adaptation of those suggestions. The interim should help us both to engage the goals named by the congregation (such as more opportunities for fellowship), and to capture desires of those outside of our average age demographic as we look to motivate a younger demographic to become more active and involved in all aspects of our church.

Provide a description of the characteristics needed by the person who is open to being called to this congregation and or organization:

Our interim pastor needs to have the ability to communicate at a high level to our members and the community. We need an adaptive leader willing to work collaboratively with existing staff and members with an open mind to new and better paths. Be willing to work closely with Director of Music Ministry in planning worship and all aspects of church activities within the church and community, fostering team spirit with all while balancing the current satisfactions with upcoming changes. We seek a creative thinker to bring fresh ideas while carefully considering the traditions of our church and the post pandemic world culture. Someone who will help guide all in outreach and small group programs. Our members appreciate an effective Christ centered preaching style. Scripture and music pair to provide the most meaningful worship possible. Have experience in providing leadership in ongoing development of educational and spiritual ministry opportunities. Be energetic, creative and passionate about Christian education for all ages and stages of life, recognizing the important role of this in faith formation, and must have tolerance to hear other opinions and mediate for the best outcome for the church moving forward, and to help in our efforts to re-build our youth program.
