

PASTOR & ELDER TRAINING WORKSHOPS

Fall 2023

Presented by Inter-Presbytery Leadership Formation (IPLF)
Education and Enrichment for Elders and Pastors in the Presbyterian Church (USA)

Pastoral Care

At the heart of leading the people of God comes a responsibility to care for them in offering spiritual comfort and presence. Whether in times of crisis or everyday experiences, how might we become those who offer genuine pastoral care for the journey?

Saturday, August 12, 2023, 12:30-3:30 pm

Instructor: Rev. Becca Siddle

Spiritual Formation for church leaders

Throughout our experiences of preaching, teaching and caring for others, we can easily begin to practice our faith as just an expression of our work. How might we be continually shaped and formed by our God as persons and as servants?

Saturday, September 9, 12:30-3:30 pm

Instructor: Rev. Matt Camlin

Wee Kirk 2023—Laurelville

October 9-October 11. wee-kirk-ne.org

Being and Leading Presbyterian-Polity

What does it mean to do it "Decently and in order?" More importantly, why would it be important? Is it a matter of control or faith? How does our Presbyterian "polity"(ways of living out our faith) reflect our practice of being church?

Saturday, October 14, 2023, 12:30-3:30 pm

Instructor: Rev. Randall Clow

Boundaries and Ethics in Church Leadership

Whether pastor or elder, leadership within the church requires clear understanding of both personal and professional ethics. Where might it lead us to establish and clearly communicate boundaries that we might serve effectively and faithfully where God calls.

Saturday, November 11, 2023, 12:30-3:30 pm

Instructor: Michelle Snyder

Learning to "Exegete" the Community

Participating in God's mission recognizes that we live and serve where we do by God's providence. So, how might we pursue God's calling in "exegeting" the text, but the community that surrounds our church. Where do I look? What do I see? As opportunities to join in God's mission.

Saturday, December 9, 2023, 12:30-3:30 pm
